Impairment and Disability Disclosure (UCEAP)

Berkeley Study Abroad is committed to facilitating the participation of students with impairments and disabilities in study abroad.

If you have a physical or mental disability or condition which may impact you while studying abroad, please:

1. Read What Students with Disabilities Should Know on the UCEAP website for information about planning and studying abroad.
2. Discuss your study abroad plans with your Disabled Students’ Program Specialist or health care provider.
3. Complete this form and submit it (with your application) in a sealed envelope marked “Confidential” and addressed to your BSA adviser.

Submission of this form is voluntary. All information in this form is confidential and will have no bearing on your selection. After you are selected, your adviser will contact you to obtain further documentation of your needs, if necessary.

Some examples of accommodations you may require while abroad are listed below. Remember that accessibility and levels of accommodation will vary by country, type of program, and host institution.

- Reduced course load
- Note-taking services
- Ability to record lectures
- Exam accommodations (e.g. additional time)
- Wheelchair accessibility
- Access to academic support services (e.g. writing assistance, tutoring)
- Access to counseling/psychological/psychiatric services
- Access to specialized medical care
- Access to medications

___

Name ___________________________ Date ___________________________

Country _________________________ Program _______________________

Term ___________________________ Year ___________________________

Please briefly describe any needs you may have or accommodations you may require while abroad:

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Has your disability/condition been documented by the UC Berkeley Disabled Students Program or a health care provider?

☐ yes  ☐ no

(Optional) additional comments about your disability/condition and/or the accommodations you may require abroad:

____________________________________________________________________________________________